

1. What were my expectations of what a theater class would be like?
I was expecting a fun creative class. It's exactly how I thought it would be.
2. How is the class different from what I expected?
It isn't that much different, because I have fun and what we are working on is interesting.
3. What skills have I learned so far about performing?
So far I have learned to determine the set up of the stage and the stage directions.
4. How well have I worked with my partners and group members?
I think that I worked rather well with them because we all contribute ideas and work together on our projects.
5. Have I been able to focus well in class? When I perform? When watching others perform?
I believe that I have been focusing and putting effort in all that I do.
6. Do I participate fully in planning with partners? In discussing other people's scenes?
I do participate in scene planning with my partners.
7. What can I do to make the second half of the term more productive for myself and for the class?
I can keep doing what I'm doing and improve my acting skills.
8. What are my goals for the rest of the term in theater class?
My goals are to improve on my skills in general. I think that I can improve a lot.
